He leaves his wife of 55 years, Dianne (Ingerson) Amadon; three sons and daughters in law, Bruce A. and Kathryn Amadon of Templeton, Shawn A. and Sharon Amadon of West Townsend, Carl R. and Jennifer Amadon of Ashby; a daughter, Tina A. Morton and her husband, Donald of Mt. Airy, NC; three brothers, Paul Q. Amadon of New Bedford, Billy L. Amadon of New Ipswich, NH, Stephen A. Amadon of Gaffney, SC; six sisters, Carlene R. Whittemore of Townsend, Phyllis E. Reynolds of Ayer, Priscilla Wentworth of Raymond, NH, Carol Amadon of Belfast, ME, M. Jean Hewitt of Florida, and Faith L. Luhtala, of New Ipswich, NH. Bob was incredibly proud of the family that he and Dianne raised. He got great joy out of spending time with his children and grandchildren. He enjoyed his many pets, domestic and otherwise. He loved taking rides with Dianne in search of wildlife and feeding the birds. Bob enjoyed woodworking and had developed a small business of selling kindling wood at his home. “ Aunt Dianne, Bruce, Tina, Shawn & Carl my heart goes out to you. Uncle Bobby was one of the sweetest and funniest men I know. Even when he used to tell us "Here's a Quarter, go play in the street" when we were kids. I have a lot of great memories of family parties at your house when we were kids. Love you all

“ Aunt Dianne, Bruce, Tina, Shawn and Carl and families. I am so sorry for your loss. Uncle Bobby was one of a kind! He was caring and adored his family. Let's also not forget his great sense of humor. The word Dutch oven for some reason comes to mind when I think of him. I also remember a certain family celebration in which he felt it necessary to point out to everyone that I had a blemish and the photographer needed to make sure to touch up the photos. He did this all out of love. He and Auntie Dianne had the type of relationship that others aspire for. He was a great man and will be missed! Love to all of you. ❤️
