

Robert R. MacMaster

June 6, 1943 - March 5, 2020

TOWNSEND: Robert R. MacMaster, 76, of Townsend, died Thursday, March 5, 2020, at Keystone Center, Leominster.

His wife of 53 years, Marcia W. (Fairbanks) MacMaster died in March 2017.

Bob was born in Fitchburg, June 6, 1943, a son of Robert W. and Phyllis V. (Ross) MacMaster and resided much of his life in Townsend. He was a member of the last high school class to graduate from Spaulding Memorial School in Townsend.

For 20 years Bob served his country in the United States Air Force, retiring in 1982 at the rank of Master Sergeant. Following his retirement from the armed forces, Bob worked for twelve years at Fort Devens for the Department of Defense as the Director of Communications.

He enjoyed skeet & trap shooting and was a member and past president of the North Leominster Rod & Gun Club. He was a member of South End Social Club in Fitchburg and the Franco American Club in Leominster. Many years ago he had been active in the Townsend Little League Program.

Bob leaves three sons, Thomas MacMaster and his wife Lisa of Fitchburg, Brian MacMaster of Townsend, David MacMaster and his wife, Renee, of West Boylston; a brother, James MacMaster and his wife, Terry of Georgia; seven grandchildren, Melissa, Trevor, Derek, Jacob, Joseph, Andrew and Riely MacMaster.

“ *Bob and Marsha came to California for a visit. We went to the San Clements pier for lunch. We were out in the pier enjoying the surfers, the people and the view. Beautiful! Then, the day was interrupted by a pigeon leaving his mark right on Bob's head! Bob was definitely not happy and told us in no uncertain words. We did manage to find Kleenex and make Bob happy again. “ Brian and family, sending you thoughts and prayers for comfort and strength.

I won't forget the Nascar races we had to watch, along with the cat chasing the cars on the TV or how he liked dessert after dinner, just as much as his naps.

Rest easy...
