What can you say about an amazing man like Roger? He was always there to help, make you smile or cheer you up...not a mean bone in him!

I have many GREAT memories of my brother. He was one of the best brothers a girl could have. There is a big age difference between us, but as a kid he was always willing to let me sit quietly next to him while he tried to watch his favorite Saturday afternoon movies. Of course, I was full of questions. For example, during "Creature Double Feature", I always wanted to know if the monsters were real and were they going to come to our house. He always assured me I was safe and he would protect me. Another childhood memory was watching another type of his favorite movies, foreign karate movies. Of course again I had lots of questions like how come the lips don't match the voices and he again would patiently explain it to me.

He was an amazing brother, and an amazing man that will truly be missed by anyone that had the pleasure of knowing him.

May you rest in peace Roger...I will miss your smiling face and our lengthy phone calls.

*Love you forever,
Phyllis Cheeseman*
