

Ronald Louis Belliveau

June 1, 1935 - October 7, 2023

Ronald Louis Belliveau was born to Dora (Leger) Belliveau and Louis Belliveau on June 1, 1935 in Fitchburg, and died on October 7, 2023 at the age of 88.

He attended St. John's School and St. Bernard High School, followed by studies at Worcester Technical School and Fitchburg State College.

He loved his work as a mechanical engineer, at companies that included General Electric, Barkley and Dexter, Laakso and Nypro.

Ron had a personal interest and involvement in investments. He loved outdoor stonework, a hobby that brought him peace, comfort and satisfaction. He enjoyed many European trips with his wife, traveling with the Italian Club of Westchester, NY and of course he loved football and the Patriots.

Ron was very much a family man. He was predeceased by his first wife and mother of his children, Judith A. Gould, in 1969. In 1973 he married Helene (Grenier), and they have happily shared 50 years of marriage. He was always there for his wife, children and grandchildren.

He leaves his wife Helene, his children John Belliveau (wife Kathy), James Belliveau (wife Shubing Lu), and Laura Laverdiere (husband Eli Laverdiere).

Also his grandchildren Cotey Belliveau, Zachary and Benjamin Laverdiere, and Amy Belliveau; his sister Carol Belliveau (husband Scott MacDonald); his brother Gary; his nephew Steven Spagnuolo; several cousins; and friends who go back a lifetime, including Jeannette Gould, and Ralph and Irene Fortin.

The Isabelle & Anderson Funeral Home, 316 Clarendon St., Fitchburg is assisting the family with the funeral arrangements and burial which will be held privately.

In lieu of flowers memorial contributions may be made to a charity of your choice
