

Ronald L. Courcy

April 3, 1939 - June 7, 2020

SHIRLEY: Ronald L. Courcy, 81, of Shirley, formerly of Burlington, died Sunday morning, June 7, 2020 at Mt. Auburn Hospital in Cambridge. He was born in White Plains, NY, on April 3, 1939, a son of the late Louis and Yvonne (Dery) Courcy and grew up in Taunton, MA. He was a graduate of Coyle High School in Taunton and attended Bryant University in Rhode Island.

Ron began his career as an accountant before starting his own upholstery business, Courcy Upholstering, which he owned and operated for 30 years. More recently he was a bus driver for the Town of Weston.

He frequented Shirley and Groton Senior Citizens Centers where he loved playing cards and dominos. He also enjoyed jigsaw puzzles and square dancing.

Ron leaves his wife of 52 years, Diane M. (Morris) Courcy of Shirley, a son Matthew Courcy and his wife Antje of Fremont, NH; two daughters, Tracey Lewis and her husband Michael of Mountain House, CA and Lori Slade and her husband Jeremiah of Shirley; a brother, Lawrence Courcy of Taunton, seven grandchildren, Nathaniel Lewis, Rebecca Lewis, Jessica Lewis, Darrion Slade, Alyssa Slade, Octavia Courcy and Annelise Courcy, nephews and nieces. He is predeceased by a brother Robert Courcy.

A celebration of Ron's life will be held by his family at a later date once social distancing restrictions are lifted. The Anderson Funeral Home, 25 Fitchburg Rd., Ayer is assisting the family with the funeral arrangements.
