“ I worked with Rose years ago at Hillcrest. She was such a kind and special person. I was young and her kindness has always stayed with me. She will be missed by all who crossed paths with her.

“ I was fortunate enough to marry her sister Shirley in 1970. Rose and Shirley were each others rock- when Shirley passed 1999 it almost killed Rose and she never got over her loss. Rose was one of the strongest women I have know. She handled adversity with fight-she handled friends with love and caring. I was fortunate to have been in the family and share in her life. We have lost a real Angel in Rose and she will be missed. But as long as we have memories she will live on. RIP Rose you have earned it.

“ I consider myself blessed to have had Rosemary as my mother-in-law. She passed her kind heart to her daughter, who then passed it to my sons. Truly one of the most colorful (in a positive, leopard print kind of way) people I have ever been graced to know.
