

Ruth Ann "Lisa" DeLong

June 6, 1940 - December 28, 2021

Harvard – Ruth Ann “Lisa” DeLong, 81, of Harvard, passed away at the Nashoba Valley Medical Center in Ayer on Tuesday, December 28, 2021.

Born in Everett, June 6, 1940, Ruth was one of three children born to the late Dr. Harry H., and Beatrice B. (Bregman) Schwartz.

Lisa was very passionate about animals, specifically cats. She started her own private rescue program for cats who needed a home, while helping families with their pets. In addition to her love for animals, she loved her family dearly and was a generous and caring person who helped anyone in need. She also enjoyed listening to and collecting old 30's and 40's radio programs. She enjoyed boating with her loving husband of 50 years, Chuck, as well as dancing and attending local Yacht Club events.

In addition to her parents, Lisa was predeceased by her sister, Johnette Lerman.

Lisa is lovingly survived by her husband of 50 years, Charles E. DeLong, II, her son, Darryl R. DeLong and his wife Diane of Shirley, her sister, Susan Merullo and her husband Joseph of Revere; her brother-in-law, Edward Lerman of Orlando, Florida; her grandchildren, Kenna DeLong and Jayce DeLong.

Funeral services will be held privately.
