

Sol E. Vega

October 31, 1955 - January 30, 2022

FITCHBURG - Sol E. Vega, 66 of Fitchburg, passed away on Sunday, January 30, 2022.

Born in Gurabo, Puerto Rico on October 31, 1955, Sol was the daughter of the late Rogelio and Carmen Gloria (Padilla) Rodriguez.

Sol's son describes her as a hard-working single mother, she always put her children first, would help anybody out the best she can and/or will find a way to help out, she was a well-known figure in the Pentecostal Community; she was a teacher who taught Special Education children for over 20+yrs, and in addition was a teacher for the Bible Institute at her church for many years. She would set goals and wouldn't stop at anything to achieve them. She was a very lovable woman that got along with everybody she met; stubborn at times, but very lovable. Her daughter describes her as the best mom & grandma. She taught her children to be strong & independent. Watching her be a strong single mom, fighting for what she wanted, she taught her children that nothing is impossible if you just work hard for it, then you can achieve it. She always went out of her way to make sure her children & her grandchildren had what they needed. She was a strong woman who endured so much pain in her life, but with God's grace & mercy, she surpassed everything. She was loved so much by her family & friends!

Sol is survived by her daughter, Sol Velazquez of Leominster; her son, Saul

Velazquez of Fitchburg; she was also survived by her 6 grandchildren Jeter S. Velazquez (14), Yamiel A. Velazquez (11), Annaleigha Velazquez (3), Eneryellysse Maldonado (14), Jeremiah J. Maldonado (12), and Emelyzze Velazquez (9).

Sol's Funeral Service will be held on Thursday, February 17, 2022 at 11:00 AM in Isabelle & Anderson Funeral Home, 316 Clarendon Street, Fitchburg. Visiting Hours will be from 6-8 for friends on Wednesday, February 16, 2022 in the funeral home. Interment in Forrest Hill Cemetery, Fitchburg.
