

Steven P. Beauchemin

July 26, 1957 - June 2, 2026

Fitchburg – Steven P. Beauchemin, 68, a lifelong Fitchburg resident, passed away peacefully on June 2, 2026.

Steven was born in Fitchburg on July 26, 1957, a son of the late Raymond and Lorraine (LeBlanc) Beauchemin. A music lover, Steven possessed an extensive knowledge of artists and songs, especially his favorite rock bands of the 60's, 70's, and 80's. Whenever a concert was announced, he was known for standing in ticket lines on behalf of friends. After securing the tickets, he would often use the remaining funds to rent a bus so that everyone could travel together and enjoy the experience as a group.

Steven spent much of his professional life working as a custodian at Burbank Hospital. Following his retirement, he found great enjoyment in landscaping, a job he loved sharing with his co-workers.

Travel was another of Steven's passions. One of his favorite trips was to Australia, where he was able to interact with his beloved Koala Bears. Steven was equally happy hopping on a bus or train and setting off across the country.

A true car enthusiast, Steven took exceptional pride in maintaining the first car he ever purchased. He kept his 1976 Thunderbird in immaculate condition for many years before ultimately gifting it to his nephew.

In addition to being an avid Boston sports fan, Steven will always be remembered as a kind, fun, and loving son, brother and uncle; to be simply put, a great guy.

He is survived by his siblings, Paul Beauchemin and wife Carmen, David Beauchemin and wife Carol, Alan Beauchemin and wife Sharon, all of Fitchburg, Wayne Beauchemin and husband Jamie Becker of Beverly, Linda Perales of Fitchburg, Nancy Goguen of Templeton, and RaeAnn Wood and husband David of Royalston; many nieces, nephews, great nieces and nephews, close friends, and neighbors.

Calling hours will be held in the Isabelle & Anderson Funeral Home, 316 Clarendon St., Fitchburg on Tuesday, June 9, from 4-7pm. The funeral Mass will be held in Saint Joseph Church, 49 Woodland St., Fitchburg on Wednesday, June 10, at 10am. Burial will follow in Saint Bernard's Cemetery.
