“ My sincere condolences to Pieter, Wayne, Jacqui and family. I had the pleasure of meeting Swanee for a brief moment in time. During our time together, she would tell me stories (in her own special language, which I soon learned). As I listened, I saw how important it was for her to share her thoughts. Swanee was great at playing chair volleyball or balloon toss, how she loved the challenge of being the best! My favorite time of the day was when she would hold my hand as we walked, she would smile, hug me and tell me she loved me.

Oh, how she made my heart smile! I would like to think she left us all with her special gift of love and happiness..."Yuppie-Yuppie"

Diane, the care at Summit was above and beyond what we could've hoped for. We were so blessed by you and so many who cared for her there. It was awesome that there were times she didn't want to leave because you all felt like family and friends to her. Thank you for blessing our mom. Thank you for going above and beyond. What you do is so important ❤️🙏 “ Alzheimer’s didn’t steal her humor, her strength (ask anyone who took care of her 😊) or her love. She was saying “I love you” still even when she couldn’t make any other sentences. She could still say “I love you”.
