

Theresa A. (Flynn) Boudreau

February 27, 2018

Theresa was born in Fitchburg on October 1, 1927 a daughter of the late John and Margaret (Gallagher) Flynn and had lived there all of her life before moving to her daughter's home in Leominster almost two years ago.

Throughout the years she was an active member of St. Joseph's Parish. Theresa was devoted to God and her family. She enjoyed the beach, playing cards, dancing, baking delicious treats, knitting and crocheting, crossword puzzles, watching the Red Sox and Celtics and singing to her grandchildren.

Her husband of 57 years, Camille E. Boudreau, died in 2007. She leaves two sons, Richard C. Boudreau of São Paulo Brazil and Thomas J. Boudreau and his wife Nance of Sterling; three daughters, Janice B. Zirpolo of Jupiter, FL, Karen A. Sheldon of Georgetown, TX and Patricia A. Boudreau-Dilillo and her husband William of Leominster; 14 grandchildren, David Legere, Michael Legere. Diana Zirpolo, Dana Zirpolo, Camille Lieb, Danielle Boudreau, Colin Boudreau, Joan Boudreau, Melissa Sheldon, Nicole Sheldon, Adam Boudreau, William DiLillo, Michael DiLillo, and Timothy DiLillo ; six great-grandchildren, Logan Legere, Violet Legere, Colin Legere, Lucas Lieb, Lyla Lieb and Madison Legere and several nephews and nieces.

In addition to her husband she was predeceased by a daughter, Joan T. Boudreau who died in 2015, a brother Thomas Flynn and five sisters, Mary Madigan, Catherine Donahue, Margaret McCrann, Elizabeth Sambito and Eileen Thomas and her son-in-law, John Zirpolo.

Her family would like to thank the staff at Summit Elder Care, Always on Call Home Care and the Highland for all the wonderful caring help and support they provided to Theresa over the past couple of years.
