

Theresa M. (Kiley) Honkala

November 14, 1928 - December 25, 2021

ASHBY: Theresa M. "Terry" (Kiley) Honkala, beloved wife, mother, nurse, and caregiver died Saturday, December 25, 2021 surrounded by her children at the Highlands Long Term Care Center, Fitchburg. She was 93 years old.

Terry was born Theresa Mary Kiley on November 14, 1928, in Great Barrington, Massachusetts. Her parents were Alan and Marybell (Bossidy) Kiley. She was raised by her aunt, Rose MacDonald, following the death of her mother. Terry graduated from Athol High School in 1946 where she very active in school activities.

Following high school, Terry graduated from Burbank Hospital School of Nursing in Fitchburg in 1949. As a new nurse she embarked out on a stellar career as a labor and delivery nurse at Burbank Hospital.

For 40 years Terry cared for mothers and helped to deliver their babies into this world. When a child is born the world is altered in an instant. A new voice is heard, new love comes into being. Terry was part of this experience with many, mothers meeting their babies for the first time.

After retirement from Burbank Hospital, Terry was a hospice volunteer for Health Alliance Hospital, fulfilling over 500 hours. Terry was also very active in the Woman's Auxiliary of Ashby.

During nursing school Terry met the dashing Rauni Honkala at a dance, whom she married in 1950. They built their home together and resided in Ashby. Together they cared for, guided, and raised seven children. Their door was always open for anyone who needed a bed to sleep in or a warm meal.

In addition, to her children Terry is mourned and will be missed by eleven beautiful, caring grandchildren and eight wonderful great-grandchildren.

Terry was predeceased by her siblings James Kiley of Lenox, Joseph Kiley of Pittsfield, Timothy Kiley of Stockbridge, and Rosemary Lundberg of Ashby. The love her life Rauni Honkala died in 2014 and her son Kevin in 1980.

She leaves behind a legacy of six children. Debbie Honkala and her companion Mike Roberts of Townsend, Keith Honkala and his wife Teresa of Ashby, Diane Carson and husband Kurt of Townsend , Dale Helle of Holden, Donna Childs and husband Jeff of Ashby and Kris Honkala of Newburyport. Terry died with her children beside her after a long struggle with Alzheimer's.

“ Just seeing this now. So very sorry to hear of Terry’ passing. I knew Terry from Burbank Hospital where we both worked. She was an excellent nurse and a real professional. My condolences to her entire family and to those in the family that I knew: Deb, Donna, Kiley and Beth Ann.

Sincerely,
Mary Majkut

“ Bob and I were sorry to be out of touch with Terri over the past several years. We last saw her at Rauni’s funeral. She will always be remembered as a very nice person. Bob appreciates all the times the Honkala Family was kind to him. He remembers working for Rauni and also house sitting when the family was away. Terri was always thoughtful sending us cards, lighting our cemetery candle for us and watering our flowers at our monument. Each time we are at the cemetery we always stop and pray for Kevin and Rauni. Now we will pray for Terri too. What a good life she had — so full of blessings. We’re so sorry to miss the funeral Mass. “ Just hearing of this sad news. Thoughts and prayers go out to the entire Honkala family during this difficult time. Terry was the most wonderful person, always looking after us “kids” with a mother’s smile. I was lucky to see her and the some of the girls every year when delivering the Senior Holiday dinner, and reminded of what a special lady she is. 🙏🙏

“ I first met Rauni & Terry Honkala while working for Ed Kaarela in his office. They were such beautiful and loving people. Always asking how I and my family were. Even after Rauni passed, Terry would come into the office and say she was visiting “me” and ask how I was doing. She cared for everyone she met. I would see her in church, and she would go out of her way to seek me out to say hello. She was a special lady.

My sincerest sympathies go out to the Honkala family.

“ I first met Rauni Honkala at the time his father died and, thereafter I was blessed by having Rauni and his beautiful wife “Terry”, as well as others of their family, as my wonderful, steady and loving friends. The matter that kept the family going wonderfully, is the love I witnessed between Terry and Rauni, that was strong, understanding and caring....which I was able to observe and to feel some of its benefits.

I will always remember Terry and Rauni, keeping my love for them and holding on to the love I have for their family.
