“ Tom was one of the most steadfast members of the church. He never missed a Sunday, always smiling, always kind, always ready to lend a hand to whomever needed it. When I joined the church and agreed to visit shut in members, Tom was so helpful because he agreed to drive me to each house and tell me about who we were visiting. It helped me get to know the members who couldn't come to church. Such a lovely man. Such a loss.
