“ Penny,
If Travis received even half the care you were able to give my parents while they were still alive, then he was definitely in a good place. Very sorry to be reading this. Please accept my condolences.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May you find strength in the love and support of family and friends. And may you find comfort in God's promise to soon undo 'all tears, mourning, pain and even death' Rev. 21:4 and to return our loved ones to us by means of the promised resurrection soon at hand (John 5:28,29). Please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Travis was a best friend to my son over the years. During those times when he was often at my house I would almost always see his quiet, gentle side. That is my memory of Travis that I will always hold on to and cherish. I feel like his soul must surely be at peace in some tranquil heaven.

“ The Casey family would like to offer our sympathy to the Breau family who lost, one of their own. Travis has been to my house many times and he will not be forgotten. I remember him trying a Rap song on me, something he wrote himself. I don't like Rap, but he was pretty good. He would sometimes make me laugh. Overall he was a good kid. I will not forget his knock at the door, I will not forget the time I seen him at Franco's with dad and I bought him a drink. I will not forget his music, which was music to my ears. I will not forget the good things he tryed to do, that made him who he was. He was a friend of my son and I felt he was a friend to me as well. It is time to REST my friend, in Paradise, With God our father.

“ R.I.P. Travis your battle is done. A tough battle it is. The sad thing is only the folks that are battling this disease of addiction truly know how difficult it can be. It's a battle every hour of every day. Some time minute to minute. May you become an angel of mercy for those who still suffer and the ones still fighting. Fly higher than you've ever flown for Jesus has you now bro.

“ I'm sorry, that I haven't been around as much, but that doesn't mean, that you mean any less to me. I have known your family for a long time, and love them very much. If you were here in front of me right now, I would see the child scurrying into Conlin' s Corner, making sure Bill wasn't gonna jump out and scare you. All so you could see mom, and of course get soda and chips! Travis, you will be missed by many, and many will love you and never forget that mischievous smile of yours. May your rest in peace my young friend, always and forever.

“ Travis was an amazing cousin.. He still is. He was the nicest and sweetest person I have ever known. Growing up he made sure I was protected. He always said he had my back and he was always there for me. As time went on we grew distant, not til recently have I made my way slightly back into his life, by communicating with him on Facebook. The last time I saw him, we were camping, he gave me one of those amazing bear hugs, and told me he'd always have my back. I'm happy we left on a great note. But it saddens me that he's not here anymore. But I know his spirit still has my back. I love you cuz. Forever!
