“ To All,

This has been a long goodbye for each of you. We cannot think of a better way to honor her than by staying by her side and praying for her release from pain. She had a strong will to live for each and every one of you. She truly was the salt of the earth, no frills or fuss, she told it like it was. We are so happy that we celebrated herself only one week ago. We miss you already Ula. Our holidays will never be the same. Our trips to parties will never be the same. She shared so very many happy and sad times with us. Who knew that we would come to love that crazy woman hitting the kid with the broom running down Mill Street? Rest in peace Ula. We love you lots! Neil & Kathy
