“ Glenda and family, I am sorry to hear of Wally's passing. I have so many fond memories of him, whether sending me in to get the eggs from the coop, helping him feed the cows, or showing me the turkeys, he always had patience and a smile. Rest in Peace.

“ My dearest friend, my mentor, my hero. I will forever be so grateful for your wisdom, insight, guidance and life lessons I've learned from you. When to work hard and when to play hard. When to tease your wife, and your daughter. When to serious and offer assistance to anyone who asked.

Glenda, Lori I have not the vocabulary or the elegance to elaborate my true love for Walter and the both of you. There are no words to express the loss to the world of this man. My heart is truly broken into even smaller pieces. I wish there was a way to spare you any pain. Except to say, he was the best of us. My hero, Walter.
