“ Oh no...I am so sorry.....he was a wonderful man who never forgot your name and was always open for a hug! An absolute sweetheart, who many times would bring people home if they'd had a bit too much to drink for the simple reason that he just wanted to make sure they made it home safely. He was one in a million.....he will be missed!

“ Judy, Matt and Family

Our sympathy goes out to you and your entire family during this difficult time. We will never forget what a special, kind, fun-loving, happy-go-lucky, and huggable man he was. Andy, was there through our families losses, and just seeing his presents may you feel better, and at peace. We'll truly miss seeing him around town. We'll keep you all in our thoughts and prayers..God Bless

“ My deepest condolences to your family for your loss. Andy was/will forever be remembered as THE 'Taxi Driver' of the town. Such the most beautiful, kindest loving of souls ~ he just loved and always wanted to give a part of himself to EVERYONE who crossed his path, even in the simplest of ways. He was a gentle giant. May he forever rest in peace with EVERY Angel... ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ Andy was one of the first persons I met upon my arrival to Ayer, Ma My ten husband and I relocated to Ft. Devens military base. My husband was stationed at Devens shortly after we we were married in my home town of New York. Andy at that time was operating a cab service from Ayer of which I had the need to use on occasion. That's how I met the gregarious and always positive Andy.

“ I would like to extend my deepest condolences to Andy's family and friends. I was saddened to hear of this huge loss. Andy never addressed me by name, but by "Hi, TEACH!" I would, in turn, respond, "Hi, Andy. How are you?" It seemed like he would always see me before I saw him. If I had to sum up his character, I would have to say that Andy was the friendliest fellow in town. That would include any town, wherever he happened to be-- at JCPenney's, Sears, Ayer, church--wherever. Andy was just what this world needs, and he will be sorely missed.

“ Andy was always kind. When my father left he would check in from time to time to make sure that I was on the straight and narrow. I may not have had a father growing up but I was lucky enough to have had a few great men to look up to and learn from. Unfortunately one of these great men has passed. but I am sure that my mother will happy to hang out with her friend again to talk about the good times.

“ My deepest condolences. Andy was a wonderful person and always had a smile on his face. I met him many years ago when he worked at NuKar - he used to bring the AAFES Vehicles back and forth to be detailed. He was very busy but always had a moment or two to say hello and make everyone feel like they were 'special'. Lots of love Andy - rest in peace.

I was so saddened and sorry when I heard of the passing of your beloved husband/father. I knew Andy for many years, though not as long as many, but I was still fortunate enough to be able to call him a friend. He went above and beyond in ways I never even asked of him. He always had something to say to put a smile on my face and bring forth a chuckle. He was a kind, thoughtful person, and I will surely miss seeing and talking with him. I know he is resting peacefully in heaven now.

“ A true testament to a man is how he loves his children. Mr. Anderson was a father like no other. I would often marvel at the love he expressed to Matt while I was his teacher. Unabashed and unconditional. May God give him eternal rest.

“ Dear Judy and family, I first met Andy when he started working at my Uncle's car lot in Ayer in the 1970's. Andy, with his ubiquitous smile and his engaging sense of humor, fast became a fixture in downtown Ayer, and an adopted member of our family. He truly was a citizen of Ayer, the most popular man in town, beloved by all. He was a real life George Bailey like the star of the movie It's a Wonderful Life. Andy would do anything to help a person in need. A true gentle man who will be missed by all who had the good fortune to have known Andy. May he Rest In Peace.
