“ Walter was a great guy. He always came to the flea market to sell me the clothing items I am always looking for. He would give me a price and I would say No way, to high. But he always got the price he told me. Rest in Peace my friend, you will be missed.

“ Dear Pauline and Marcia, I'm sad to hear of Walter's passing. I remember well our days at St. Mary's. I lost track of Walt when we went to Ayer High and he went off to Fitchburg. After AHS we met up again in the National Guard. Walt was a great guy and good friend. Remember the good times with your brother, he had a great sense of humor and was always cheerful.

RIP Walt.

“ Dear Paula and family. I'm sorry to hear of Walter's passing. I have a lot of memories of him at St. Mary's and when we worked at Devens together for a brief time. I hope your many memories will provide you with a measure of solace in this time of sadness
