“ The death of a loved one is the most devastating experience a family can face. At times, the loss may seem unbearable, but know that there are those who care, and more importantly, God cares. Psalm 34:18 tells us that God "is close to the brokenhearted." He "is the God of all comfort". (2 Corinthians 1:3,4)

“ I worked with Wayne for over 10 years. He had a passion for life. He enjoyed most anything he did. Because of his upbeat attitude he was always a pleasure to be around. He always spoke very highly of his wife.

He had a passion for boating, his garden, cars, and of course the weather. I always looked forward to talking with him. It was even more fun when there was a storm coming. He also would pass along found memories of the Navy.

I am so sorry to hear of his passing. Carolyn, you and your family will be in our prayers. Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss.

Wayne thanks for the friendship and the memories. You will be sadly missed.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for your loss. I am one of many who worked with Wayne over the last few years and we were shocked and deeply saddened to learn of his passing. He was always fun to work with, famous for his weather updates if you were lucky enough to get on his e-mail list. Thoughts and prayers for his family during this difficult time.
