

Wayne A. Landry, 53 of Ayer

December 31, 1971 - December 18, 2025

AYER: Wayne A. Landry, 53, of Ayer, formerly of Acton, died December 18, 2025 at the University of Massachusetts – Memorial Hospital, Worcester following a brief illness.

Wayne was born in Acton, December 31, 1971, a son of the late Charles J. and Carole Lee (Croft) Landry and was a graduate of Minuteman High School in Lexington.

He was a Master Plumber by trade as well as an Oil Technician employed by MacFarlane Energy Company of Deham. His passion to assist families to ensure his clients were taken care of was a top priority to him.

His favorite pass time was flying his drone, listening to a variety of music, especially 80's rock bands and was a “Muscle Car” enthusiast. He also enjoyed vacationing at local and Caribbean beaches.

He was also known for his congeniality, compassion, and sense of humor which allowed him to develop many long standing and strong friendships.

He leaves his wife of twelve years, Lori A. LePage – Landry; and two sons, Jack T. Landry and Owen C. Landry both of Leominster.

The Anderson Funeral Home, 25 Fitchburg Road, Ayer is assisting the family with arrangements.

Funeral arrangements will be held privately.

Tribute Wall

SU

“ We met Wayne and Lori thru a friend, we went to their wedding which was a most fun I've had at a wedding. I'm sorry he passed on and my thoughts and prayers are with Lori and the family.

Steve & Laurie Urban

Steve & Laurie Urban - January 29 at 03:31 PM

DG

“ I only knew Wayne (and the Landry family) from Scouting in Troop 1 Acton, when we were kids, way back in the day. His Dad Charlie, was our scoutmaster, his brother John was in the troop for a while, and other brother Scotty was always around at various functions. Wayne was mostly a happy-go-lucky kid, with a smile on most days. He seemed to enjoy passing on knowledge, and just being a good friend to others. I left Acton at 18 years old and never got to know him as an adult. Based on the other tributes here, it sounds like his cheerful personality was something that stayed. Rest in peace Wayne. My sincere sympathies to your family and close friends.
Dan G.

Dan G - December 29, 2025 at 09:36 AM

JH

“ Gone too soon. A wonderful husband to Lori and also a great friend to those that got to know you. You had an infectious laugh and great personality. You will truly be missed.

Jen H.

Jen Hines - December 24, 2025 at 08:35 PM

MA

“ Wayne, I could tell you were in physical pain w/your back or legs even 12 months ago, you can rest easy now that your work is done & w/the wind at your back my brother. Only worked w/You once, but you never had a bad word about anything or anyone. You were a craftsman my friend. I’m sure your close colleagues will miss you greatly. Blessings to your family during this difficult time & holiday season.

matt - December 24, 2025 at 05:02 PM

AM

“ Wayne you will be missed. You made so many people happy just being around you, your kindness was a gift. Your love for Lori was so genuine and beautiful and I know she was so happy to be by your side. Taken too soon my friend. Catch you on the flip side. Rest in peace, I hope your heaven is full of Van Halen and a beautiful Caribbean ocean you can float in. Love you 💕
Allison C. Mauti

Allison Mauti - December 22, 2025 at 08:40 PM