“ To Maria, Tony, Andy and your family's let me say this is sad time for all of us Wayne has left behind. He leaves a hole in our hearts that can't be filled, a special place that was his alone. Our thoughts should be about the man he was, there are so many words to discribe him kind, honest, loving, loyal, funny just to name a few. My best friend for the past 67 years, the brother I never had. What would Wayne want us do now, not to be sad for his suffering is over and he's certainly earned a pace in Heaven. We need to celebrate his life, remember the joy he brought into our lives, I shut my eyes and I see the mischievous look in his eyes when he just did something he thought was cute. I loved him, I'll miss him but I'll never forget him.

“ Even though I haven't seen Uncle Wayne in quite a few years I will always remember his smile and how he could make me laugh. I remember him being very sad about my dad's passing and I'm sure my dad was waiting to greet him when God called him home.

“ Wayne lived his life like the person he was. He was always kind and considerate of others and showed his love for Maria ("Filomena") in so many wonderful ways most notably loving her family with the same passion as Maria. He attended many of the Chaves functions and it was hard to know that he was not born into the clan. He was an active participant in the annual Portuguese picnic and enjoyed the traditional foods with the same gusto as Maria's family. We will miss this wonderful man that we were so blessed to have known.

“ I have. Known Wayne since 8th grade, when Our family moved to Harvard. Our families became very close. Bernie and Wayne were very close friends to the end. Wayne was like a brother to me. I will remember the high school years and my visits to his and Maria's house thereafter. Such a good guy, so such a loss. Though Alzheimer's set in at the end, he still will be missed by so many family members and friends. Special prayers for Maria, Tony, Andy, and Pat.
