“ I met Bill at an Intro to Fishing for Women class at the Townsend club. When I saw him I told him I had really been fishing throughout my life and I just wanted to meet him because he was famous in the area! He was so kind and continued to be in touch with me for his last 2/3 years about various events at the club. I will miss him. I just bought a cabin on Stiles Lake and told him I wanted him to visit this summer to show me the best fishing spots. Jean and the family are in my thoughts.

“ Bill and I met through National Wild Turkey Federation events and became friends. He was generous and engaging and fun to be around. While he had many setbacks in his later years, he remained positive and faced his challenges head on... always with an eye to get back to the outdoors he loved. He was blessed and thankful to have Jean as his love and his friend. Rest In Peace, my friend.

“ My heart goes out to Jean and all of Bill's other loved ones who are in my thoughts and prayers, this day. Bill and I met and became good, dear, friends, back in the 80s, when we worked together on TR&G Zoning matters. Bill was everything others who knew him have shared and more. He has always been my go to, for hunting and fishing, as well as just a good friend to talk to. I will certainly miss him, for now. God bless.

“ If you are a hunter, fisherman, or just enjoyed the outdoors without taking anything away but memories, Bill was your go-to-guy for advise. As a member of the Townsend Rod and Gun club, his input and wisdom will be missed. It is easy to understand why his Sports column was so successful, as it reflected his life experience, both with people and the environment. Farewell Bill, the trail is yours.....

“ I met Bill through our mutual love of the outdoors. Specifically, the Great American Wild Turkey brought a great group of guys and families together. We all met through the National Wild Turkey Federation. Attending fund raising banquets, becoming members and volunteering with local chapters. Bills' outdoor columns would sometimes feature pieces about the organization or mentions of several of us and our travels around the country pursuing wild turkey or other wild game. But, it was the intimate gatherings either in NY or MA, that will leave the most precious memories. Throughout his recent difficulties, Bill would always employ his direct manner and humor, at these gatherings. It would always cause me to nearly shoot a mouthful of damn good wine out of my nose! He may have labored in the field a bit in his last years. But he set one hell of an example for his friends. We'll be raising a toast this coming spring turkey season to Bill. And be missing him dearly,

“ I am so saddened to hear of Bill's passing. Our family was touched by Bill's kindness and compassion while my mother was a patient at Sterling Village. In addition to his respiratory expertise, Bill used humor to relate to his patients on a more personal level. His visits often brightened our mom's days, and we appreciated his kindness.
