“ My buddy Bill "The Barber" was a great man who loved the simple things that life had to offer. He enjoyed my visits; not always for a haircut although most of the time he insisted I needed one, but; just to reminisce about his childhood days and time spent with his sweetheart Beverly. I used to look forward to visiting Bill and bringing along some lobster pies and/or chowder...his favorite and then just sitting and chatting until we ran out of stories. I will miss my buddy dearly. Please take solace in knowing that he is now at peace with his sweetheart and that you have two special angels above watching over you.

God Bless you Bill and May you rest in peace.
