

William M Cameron

October 24, 2017

Bill was born in Leominster on September 17, 1944 a son of the late Maxwell and Irene (Laprade) Cameron. He grew up in Leominster and graduated from Leominster Trade School in 1965 with a concentration in carpentry. He has lived in Lunenburg for over 50 years.

Bill was a self-employed carpenter having worked throughout the area on various jobs from commercial construction to small household projects. He was also the co-owner of the former Flower Barn in Lunenburg.

He was a member of the former All Saints Parish in Leominster where he volunteered on several building projects. Bill was also an avid fisherman, and participated in area horseshoe leagues. His true passion was being a grandfather and cherished his time spent with family.

He leaves his wife of 52 years, Donna F. (Proctor) Cameron of Lunenburg; four daughters, Lois Filiau of Lunenburg, Laurie Pearson of Phillipston, Lynn Crawley of Sumter, SC and Laura Burke of Colorado; two brothers, Wallace Cameron of Leominster and David Cameron of Gardner; a sister, Linda McDowell of South Carolina; eight grandchildren, Cameron, Carter, James, Josh, Meghan, Matthew, Peter and John; seven great-grandchildren and several nephews and nieces. He is predeceased by a brother, Jeffery Cameron.

Tribute Wall

SP

“ Instant Access To 16,000 Woodworking Designs, DIY Patterns & Crafts Popular Kits, Ideas and Furniture Plans! Details here - http://bit.ly/Woodworking_Site

<http://>

Sheryl Posthuma - January 27, 2018 at 04:39 AM

SC

“ Donna and Family so sorry to here of Bills passing. Just found out last night. You two were such a great pair together. Time passes so quickly and often loose contact with family and friends. Sending you and the family lots of hugs and prayers.

Sandra Copeland - November 07, 2017 at 09:35 AM

LC

“ I am very sorry for your loss

Lorraine Cameron - October 27, 2017 at 10:31 AM

WJ

“ So for your loss uncle Billy was a nice person I remember riding the horse and he was watch me It was my first time on a horse it was fun .

Wallace Camero JR - October 27, 2017 at 10:18 AM

MG

“ Sorry for your loss

Marsha Germain - October 26, 2017 at 01:57 PM