

Yvette T. Toland, 97, of Fitchburg

November 10, 1927 - March 14, 2025

FITCHBURG: Yvette T. (Cormier) Toland, 97, a lifelong Fitchburg resident died Friday, March 14, 2025 at Health Alliance – Leominster Hospital, Leominster.

Yvette was born in Fitchburg, November 10, 1927, a daughter of Alderic and Lilly (DeLoge) Cormier and was a graduate of St. Bernard's Central Catholic High School in Fitchburg.

For over thirty years Yvette worked at Leominster Hospital before retiring in 1995. Even after her retirement, Yvette continued to volunteer at Leominster Hospital well into her nineties. Many years ago she held the position of Dormitory Mother at the Burbank Hospital School of Nursing in Fitchburg.

Yvette was a longtime parishioner and Choir member at St. Joseph's Church in Fitchburg. She was a member of the American Legion Auxiliary, the Gold Star Wives as well as the American Ex-POW Auxiliary. She had also served as a member of the Board of Directors at the Bella Vista Apartment complex where she resided for twenty four years.

Until very recently, Yvette was fortunate to maintain a wonderful quality of life. She was always able to stay current with politics, sports and current events.

She leaves three daughters, Barbara P. Malboeuf of Fitchburg, Phyllis Hine and her partner, Dan Parmenter, of Athol, Paula Breton and her husband, Alan, of Gardner; her sister, Pauline Pelletier of Agawam; nine grandchildren, twelve great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren.

Her husband, Philip D. Toland died in November, 2000. She was predeceased by her son, Wayne R. Toland and her son in law, Paul J. Malboeuf both of Fitchburg who both passed away last year. She was the sister of the late Robert Cormier of Fitchburg

“ I was a nursing student at Burbank from 1974-77 and I remember how kind Mrs. Toland was to all of us. It's been over 50 years, but when I saw her photo, I immediately remembered her. May she rest in peace.
